Need a job? Come to the SJMC Career Fair

SAN MARCOS, TX—Texas State University’s Career Services is set to hold their Spring Career Fair with over 50 employers, Feb. 13.

According to the Career Services website, the School of Journalism and Communication Career Fair is the student’s link to a career in communications.

Whether students want to work in TV, radio or social media this is the place students want to be, said Mr. Chuck Kaufman, Senior Lecturer, SJMC.

Just some employers set to attend are iHeart Media, KTBC/ Fox 7 and Texas Monthly.

The career services office is encouraging students to swing by the office for resume help and professional advice.

For more information regarding the career fair, visit the Career Services office or visit them online.
